The Saving You Can Exercise in Buying One of These Elegant $2 Blouses Will Warrant a Special Visit to Our Waist Department Tomorrow.

We say tomorrow—for we don't know whether there will be any left the following day—in fact we very much doubt it, for it not infrequently happens that these $2.00 Blouses sell out the first day they're placed on sale. When you see the blouses you'll readily understand why they sell so well.

The Welworth—universally recognized as the finest of all $2 Blouses is sold here exclusively.

We Are Showing a New Line of Framed Pictures Displayed From Latest Multiplex Rack. Third Floor.

Beautiful pictures, that were carefully selected and very moderately priced. We have given special attention to the opening of this new line, and we have them displayed in a way that you can see the entire water colors, pastels, tinted prints, frames, Circassian, Mahogany and gilt. We are prepared to frame your pictures, and promise prompt, satisfactory service on such work.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Entertainment.

Under the auspices of the St. John's Club the following musical and literary program will be rendered at St. John's tabernacle, on the Milford road, at 8 o'clock Friday evening:

Misses Smith and Gordon, Miss Laura Thompson, voice.
Vocal solo—"Tell Her I Love Her So."

"Trial of Ben Thomas," Edwards (a) "Daddy's Troubles," (b) "Oleot's Fly Song," (c) "Lullaby."

"Ma and Pa Keeler," McLean (a) "Plea for Home," (b) "No One Can Take Your Place."

"Tommy Blake," Latta (a) "That Old Sweetheart of Mine," (b) "Ole Br'er Trouble," (c) "Paint of the Blaque Doll."

Vocal solo—"Sleep Little Baby Mine," Charles Dene Comendetta, "The Man Across the Street."

Aunt Tibatha Marsh, A Suffragette Dorothy Marsh, A Disappointed Maiden

Place—Fashionable hotel. Time—7:30 p. m.

Author—Minna L. Harding. Program subject to change.

Miss Thompson has had special training at Salem College and at Bethany College and is a sweet singer. Miss Smith is a graduate of Wesleyan College and of the Greeley School of Dramatic Art, Boston, and is a reader of note. Miss Gordon is a graduate of Wesleyan and as an entertainer has achieved an enviable reputation.

Nightly Concerts Popular.

Nightly concerts by the renowned Cadanza orchestra are proving very attractive at the Orpheum theater and Jack Marks, popular theater man, is shaking hands with himself over this latest acquisition to the splendid show program he gives his numerous patrons every week day in the year. Solos by Gus Smith of the orchestra add much to the entertainment.

Oyster Supper.

An oyster supper will be held in the Woodmen of the World hall at Lost Creek Saturday night. There will be lots of good things to eat and plenty of seats and table room.

To Lecture.

At 3:45 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the First Methodist Episcopal church, Dr. McCuaig will lecture on "The Girl and the Danger," to women only. All women are wanted to be present. High school girls past sixteen may attend. All mothers, school teachers, Sunday school teachers, business girls, Young Women's Christian Association members, Woman's Christian Temperance Union members and club women of the city and county are expected to attend.

Delegates Named.

At a meeting of the Civic Club at the parish house Wednesday afternoon, announcement was made of the eleventh annual convention of the West Virginia Federation of Woman's Clubs, at Fairmont, and delegates were appointed. As one delegate to every ten members is allowed to any club, eight delegates and eight alternates were named as follows:

Mrs. Robert Morris treasurer, Mrs. B. F. Robinson secretary, Mrs. H. E. Travis vice president, Mrs. H. W. Harmer, Mrs. S. A. Smith, Mrs. D. W. Jacobs, Mrs. A. L. Roberts and Miss S. Scollay Page.

Alternates—Mrs. W. Brent Maxwell, Mrs. Paul Robinson, Mrs. Olandus West, Mrs. F. B. Haymaker, Mrs. F. H. White, Mrs. C. E. Lamberd, Mrs. John Craig and Miss Florence Lynch. All club members, whether delegates or not, are cordially invited to be present at the sessions of the convention and to take part in the discussions.

The convention will open formally at 2 p. m. Tuesday and reports from the different clubs will be read. Dr. S. L. Jepson, of Wheeling, health commissioner of West Virginia, will deliver an address on the public health conditions of our state, and the work of his department.

Tuesday evening a general reception to all visitors will be given. Wednesday evening Mrs. Frederick Dow, vice president of the Illinois State Federation and chairman of the resolutions committee of the national federation, will deliver an address on "Business of Serving." Thursday morning she will also speak on the social service work accomplished in the suffrage states.

Mrs. J. Gall Ebert will also be present and speak on the suffrage campaign in West Virginia. Thursday afternoon, Andrew Wright Crawford, of Philadelphia, will speak on "State and Municipal Art," the address to be followed by an automobile ride and an art tea at the country club.

Thursday evening the hostess club will present Madame Jennie Deftau, a well known singer, in a musical program. These are the principal events in the convention and it is hoped that all club members will take advantage of this federation, which promises to be of much interest.

If the delegates or alternates desiring to attend will apply to Mrs. H. E. Travis, credential blanks will be mailed to them at once.

St. Mary's Club Opening.

The formal opening of the St. Mary's Club for the fall season will be held in the club rooms in the St. Mary's high school building and in the St. Mary's auditorium Thursday evening. All club members and friends are invited to attend and a good time is in store for all attending. The evening's entertainment will consist of music, dancing and a luncheon. All is free and a large attendance is expected.

To Entertain Club.

Mrs. John Cottrell, of Daisy street, will entertain the Mothers Club of Broad Oaks at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon. An interesting program is promised by the leader, Mrs. Della Stromider. The subject will be "How the Story Grows." All members of the club are urged to attend this meeting.

Mrs. Martin Entertains.

Mrs. A. F. Martin, of Bridgeport, entertained a few friends at her home Wednesday evening in a very pleasing and delightful manner. Music was the diversion of the evening. A number of vocal solos were rendered by Mr. Willis Dean. At 10 o'clock a delicious salad course was served by Mrs. Martin assisted by Miss Esther Cornwell.

LADY TEYNHAM SEES WAR ON WEST FRONT

Lady Teynham.

Lady Teynham has just returned to England from a motor car tour of the French front. She was one of a small party that went out to discover just what could be done to relieve the civilian population.

Those who attended from this city were Miss Rebah Corpening, Mrs. Gay Flowers and Miss Canine Manley; Mr. N. G. Brown and Mr. E. J. Martinez.

Those from Bridgeport were Miss Esther Cornwell, Miss Lucille Martin, Miss Parr, Mrs. Nora Martin, and Messrs. Donley Taylor, Willis Dean and Murray Cornwell.

At a late hour all departed for their respective homes, much pleased with Mrs. Martin's way of entertaining.

Two Card Parties.

Mrs. L. P. Currence, of 124 Chestnut street, will give a euchre luncheon at 1 o'clock Friday afternoon and the same evening will entertain at auction bridge for ladies and gentlemen.

NEW METHOD STOVES AND RANGES

have been sold by us since the year 1910. Our records prior to that time were destroyed by fire. By actual count of all invoices from 1910 we find the following yearly sales:

Year	Stoves Sold
1910	172
1911	160
1912	192
1913	228
1914	255
1915 to date	204

Total stoves sold.....1211

This list does not represent all the stoves we have sold during this time. We have tried out dozens of other kinds, only to return finally to the old reliable.

NEW METHOD GAS RANGES

They are made of rust-proof material which never needs polishing. The asbestos lining retains all the heat, thus saving gas bills. The split oven doors are convenient, strong and smooth operating. The enameled removable steel burners are guaranteed five years. The swinging simmering burners are a great convenience in lighting the other burners. In short New Method Stoves and Ranges bake and broil perfectly, are conveniently arranged and long lasting. Ask your neighbor.
